Well that's exactly how I feel about Agent of Darkness, the third book in the Dark Fae FBI book. This book was pure awesomeness. The authors have ramped everything up tenfold and it was just so exciting to read that I found it incredibly difficult to book the down (FYI, don't start reading this book just before going to bed).

Agent of Darkness is the third book in C.N. Crawford's Dark Fae FBI series, and, true to its name, it's one hellavuh trip into darkness. This book has by far been my favourite book in the series (perhaps Cassandra and I share a love of dark, twisty, and complicated things, LOL) and Agent of Darkness takes the action which has been evident throughout the entire series and ramps it up a notch, or ten.

Agent of Enchantment; Dark Fae FBI, Book 1 ... There isn't much that wasn't great about the last book in the dark Fae series. It stretched the span of human emotion's. I would have loved a little more intimacy between the two main characters in this conclusion but otherwise well worth the time and money.
